SUBJECT: TRAVEL WARNING - TROPICAL STORM HANNA AND TROPICAL STORM IKE

1. This Travel Warning is being issued to urge U.S. citizens to carefully consider the risks of travel to The Bahamas and The Turks and Caicos Islands at this time due to the threat posed by Tropical Storm Hanna and Tropical Storm Ike on September 3, 2008. The Department of State authorized the departure of non-emergency personnel and eligible family members of the U.S. Embassy in Nassau, The Bahamas. The storm is currently affecting the Turks and Caicos and is predicted to pass over The Bahamas as a category 1 hurricane during the September 3 - 4 timeframe. Tropical Storm Ike is expected to impact the Bahamas on September 6- 9, 2008. Updates on the storm's tracks and intensities can be found at <http://www.nhc.noaa.gov/>.

2. The U.S. Embassy in Nassau will be available early on Wednesday, September 3rd for emergency American Citizens Services, but may be forced to suspend operations without notice. U.S. citizens in the central and northern Bahamas Islands likely to be impacted by Tropical Storms Hanna and Ike who do not have access to adequate and safe shelter should consider departing while commercial flights are still available. Seating capacity on commercial flights is extremely limited. Flights into and out of Nassau and Freeport international airports may be suspended at any time. If staying in The Bahamas, U.S. citizens are urged to locate shelter, monitor media reports, and follow all official instructions. Visitors to The Bahamas should be familiar with their hotel or cruise ship evacuation plans, policies, or procedures. Please see the Tropical Storm Travel Alert regarding Tropical Storm season dated May 30, 2008 on the Department's website at <http://www.travel.state.gov>

them in a safe, waterproof location. Additionally, all U.S.citizens in the area are reminded to stay in contact with friends and family in the United States to keep them apprised of their current whereabouts.

¶4. Americans living or traveling in The Bahamas and The Turks and Caicos Islands are encouraged to register with the U.S. Embassy through the State Department's travel registration website,
